

The line graph illustrates the monthly average of the number of people in the labor force from 1960 to 1990. The Y-axis represents the number of people in millions, ranging from 170 to 190. The X-axis represents years from 1960 to 1990. The line shows a general upward trend with significant fluctuations, starting around 192 million in 1960 and ending around 170 million in 1990.

The bar chart displays the annual number of publications from 1990 to 2020. The y-axis is labeled 'Number of Publications' and ranges from 0.0 to 1.0. The x-axis is labeled 'Year' and ranges from 1990 to 2020. The bars represent the number of publications for each year. A red line represents a linear regression fit to the data, showing a slight downward trend over the period.
